It would be well if the return required by Govt. Memo requiring him to attend a meeting be appended to the Travelling allowance Bill - the countersign of the Head of the Office need not be insisted upon

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain the orders of Government as to whether bills for travelling allowances claimed by non-official members of Her Highness the Maharanee's Girl School Committee for attending Committee meetings are to be countersigned and if so, by whom. The proper Officer to countersign them, if such is required, is in my opinion the President of the Committee who convenes the meetings. The existing rules do not provide for any Countersignature.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant.
